TODAY AND COMING SOON

WELCOME TO ALL, especially if you are visiting us today. We are delighted to have you here. Nametags are an outward symbol of radical hospitality. If you don't have one, please see an usher or a greeter for assistance. If you are visiting, we also invite you to fill out a pew card and put it in the plate.

Additionally, Dawn Stockbridge has graciously accepted to stand for the two-year term remaining after Ricki Carson stepped down, also with the Vestry's full support. We also want to express our appreciation for the hard work of our outgoing class, Dawn Davis, Richard Grosse, and Beth Markwood. Thank you all for your dedicated service.

We will meet weekly for a simple supper and then two mini-lessons taught by Beth Harrison and Father Rock. We will begin Wednesday, February 21 and continue through March 21. Requested book donation: $16. And, Our Advent Story time was so much fun, we would like to do a novel for Lent. Starting at 11 am on Ash Wednesday (Feb 14) we will read through the delightful "The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane" by Kate DiCamillo. While a children's book, like the best of them, it is written on multiple levels and it has become a family favorite. Requested book donation: $8.50.

STEWARDSHIP

GRATITUDE so much of the work of this church, across all of its ministries, is accomplished by a vast army of volunteers. Keep an eye on our Stewardship bulletin board for individuals and groups who have given generously of their time and talent to better our community. This week, we are especially grateful to the volunteers in the SJTL Free Clinic.

PLEDGE ENVELOPES are available for pick-up in the hallway at Information Central. If you opted out of the numbered pledge envelopes, THANK YOU! And please note, for recordkeeping purposes, you still have a number assigned to your family; it may not be the same number you have always had. You will find colorful cards with your new pledging number on the same table as the envelopes. Please update your banking service to reflect your current designation.
