LUNCH FOR FAMILIES WITH YOUNGER CHILDREN! We invite you and your family to lunch with Father Rock and our Welcome Committee, Sunday, February 17 at 11:30 in Brydon Hall. Your children are also welcome. Please RSVP to the office, 798.6336. We are glad you are here!

PASTORAL CARE "MEAL TRAIN" VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: Can you provide a meal for a family or individual in time of emergency? We are restarting this in-reach to parishioners when Father Rock determines the need. We hope that this won't arise very frequently, but when it does, we do need volunteers that can be called upon. Please sign up on posting in the hallway with your name, email address, and phone number if you are able to help out. Please call Ginny Meyer with any questions at 804-261-2080, or e-mail her @ alohaginny@me.com.

LENTEN EVENING PROGRAMMING – LEARNING LAB This year for Lent we will have fun evenings of learning and activity. We will spend the first half of our time looking at the meaning of our seasons in the liturgical year, one a night, and some of their peculiarities. Why does the priest bang on the door at the start of the Easter Vigil? Or, why is Advent considered a penitential period of time? These, and so many other questions, will be revealed. And after digging into these, we will pray. Every week we will look at a different form of prayer, and do it. We are all fearfully and wonderfully made, and because of our uniqueness, we all connect with God in different ways. Mark your calendars for family-friendly evening programming on Tuesdays starting March 12, and continuing through Lent. We'll start with a simple supper at 6:30 pm, and programming to start at 7 pm.

And then, on Wednesday evenings, at least through Lent, we start a Latino ministry program, also at 7 pm. iInvita a tus amigos! iTodos son bienvenidos!
